

Félix Sobrino Martínez

(Madrid, 1975)

Secretary of FUNDACIÓN IBERDROLA ESPAÑA

Secretary of FUNDACIÓN IBERDROLA ESPAÑA. Graduate in Law from the University San Pablo CEU specialising in economic law, with a degree awarded by the University San Pablo CEU. Government counsel on leave of absence.

Professional experience

He has been head government counsel in Teruel and Valencia. In 2007 he was also government counsel attached to the Ministry of Health and Consumer Affairs, responsible for providing legal assistance to the Spanish Agency for Medicines and Health Products. He was subsequently appointed deputy head government counsel at the Legal Service department of the Spanish Tax Agency (AEAT), in the sub-directorate general for Organisation and Legal Assistance.

He held the position of government counsel at the central criminal and administrative court in the contentious-tax and economic-financial areas.

Until June 2012, he practiced as deputy government counsel at the Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness assisting the Ministry's Legal Department.

Career highlights relevant to his post on the Board of Trustees

Since 2012, when he joined Iberdrola, he has been Director of the Legal Services of Iberdrola Ingeniería y Construcción, S.A.U and non-member Secretary of its Board of Directors. He is currently director of the Legal Services of Iberdrola España, S.A.U.

He has made various contributions and taught courses in Law and Economy.